

Have your kids had free summer meals?

We want to hear from you!

Oregon State University is looking for parents, grandparents, or other caregivers of kids 18 and under to talk about your experiences with summer meals.

We will provide: $100 gift card for each person who completes the online (Zoom) focus group.

If you answer “yes” to the following questions, you may be eligible to participate:

Have you ever taken your child or grandchild to summer feeding sites for a meal or snack?

Did you attend summer meals when your child or grandchild was required to eat the lunch or snack before leaving the meal site (this would have been before the COVID-19 pandemic)?

Could you attend a 90-minute focus group online?

Participants will be asked to:

Talk about new ways to inform Oregon families about the Summer Food Service Program and summer meals.
